Peer Pressure

Tic Toc Toc Tic

You need to be someone who is slick

Don't be yourself just fit in,

Because that is what our society is

Swear because everyone does

Mess up like everyone wants

Be funny, disrupt the class

Be rude and make us laugh

Talk bad behind backs,

Wear the new trend

And then press send

Start the drama

Call people a llama

And last of all,

Make fun of me

Because, yes I wanna be myself

And yes I want to wear what I want

And yes I want to choose my friends

And yes I want to get good grades

And yes you should want to be yourself

But this is all up to you

Not up to society

To you

The one and only you

Not up to our school

Not up to our friends

Not up to your dad or mom

Up to you

The one and only you

It is up to you to want to be who you want to be

A follower? Or a leader?

You? Or someone else?

It is up to you

What will you choose?

Go and do what society tells you to do?

Since when did society rule us?

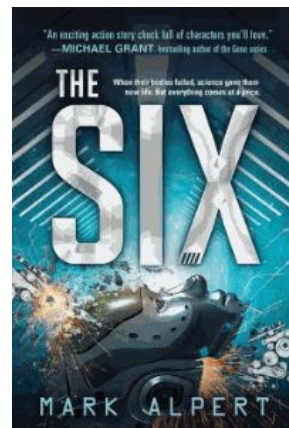

Go and be yourself like your parents told you to do?

Oh....so you don't want to fit in!

Book Reviews

Before he dies, Adam has one chance to prevent the artificial intelligence Sigma from destroying all human life on earth. Of course, it's Adam's father's fault that the technology has gone haywire. Can you blame him for trying to keep his son alive? He never intended for things to go so far. Adam and his new super-computer friends must learn to work together and stop the potential catastrophe from happening, but there's not much time! The Six by Mark Alpert will have you racing through the pages to see how it all turns out! No matter what, life as we know it will change...

Attention all readers! Do you like reading mystery books? What about realistic fiction books? Well, then you would enjoy House on the Gulf written by Margaret Peterson Haddix. This book is a realistic fiction book that will keep you on the edge of your seat! This book is about a family of three. (Mom also known as Rebecca, Britt, a twelve year old, and her older brother, Bran.) Their grandparents, also known as Rebecca's parents, has been rude to Rebecca since she was going to be with her ex-husband. Britt and Bran never sees their father anymore since he ran off, away from his family. One day, Rebecca decided to leave her old place to move to Florida. They lived in a home that didn't look so great. They didn't have much money so Bran got a job and decided to work at the Marquise's house. He mowed the grass every day. One day, Bran got a place for his family to live for the summer. Another thing Bran likes to do is go to school and research on the computer. Britt becomes suspicious when Bran won't show her the mail, or won't let her talk to the Marquises. Why is she suspicious? Why won't he let her talk to them? Why does he find a place so sudden? Read House on the Gulf by Margaret Peterson Haddix to find out!
